The Clerk has made a public announcement that the current term of the office of United States Magistrate Judge Calvin Botley is due to expire on October 31, 1995, and the Chief Judge has notified the Chairperson that the panel is needed to assist the district judges in their determination whether to reappoint the incumbent. The Merit Selection Panel shall commence the selection process on or before March 1, 1995 and shall submit to this court its recommendations concerning Magistrate Judge Calvin Botley's reappointment to serve an additional term as United States Magistrate Judge in the Southern District of Texas. The recommendations shall be filed no later than 60 days from the date of this Order. The Merit Selection Panel shall review the incumbent's performance in office as a magistrate judge, and consider comments, if any, received from members of the bar and the public and any other pertinent evidence as to character, judgment, legal ability, temperament, and commitment to equal justice under the law.

ENTERED at Houston, Texas, this 14th day of February, 1995

/Signed/
Norman W. Black
Chief Judge
United States District Court
